

Date	Name	Comments/Inquiry	Staff Response/Action
August 16, 2022	Public comments at open house	General discussion about backflow and program administration. A questionnaire was provided to each visitor, they could be dropped off when leaving or sent to staff on a later date	The draft by-law was reviewed and revised to include clarification of building types, and powers of the inspector
August 30, 2022	General Manager of Infrastructure, Municipality of Trent Hills	General support for draft backflow prevention program	Acknowledged
September 1, 2022	Linmac staff member	Inquiry about backflow prevention programs in other municipalities	Council Report 2020-35 with list of municipalities provided
September 9, 2022	Linmac staff member	Inquiry about draft backflow prevention program, timing, CSA standards, costs, procedures, and annual testing	Draft by-law revised to include time frames, notice revisions, receipts for removal of documents, time for compliance extensions, and clarification of CSA standard requirements
October 20, 2022	Manager of Capital Infrastructure, Municipality of Brighton	Comments around public notice and awareness, enforcement responsibilities, types of buildings affected, and financial costs	Meeting between County Inspection staff and Brighton CAO and staff on October 20, 2022 to discuss comments. Draft by-law revised to address concerns and provided. No further concerns
August 9, 2022	Dobri Engineering Staff member	Inquiry if private or communal systems should be part of the draft by-law and if multiple residential buildings need defining	The draft by-law does include private wells and communal systems and was considered but not revised The draft By-law revised to define a multi-residential building